

GPSC Mamlatdar Exam Pattern – 75 Marks Computer-Based Test (CBRT)

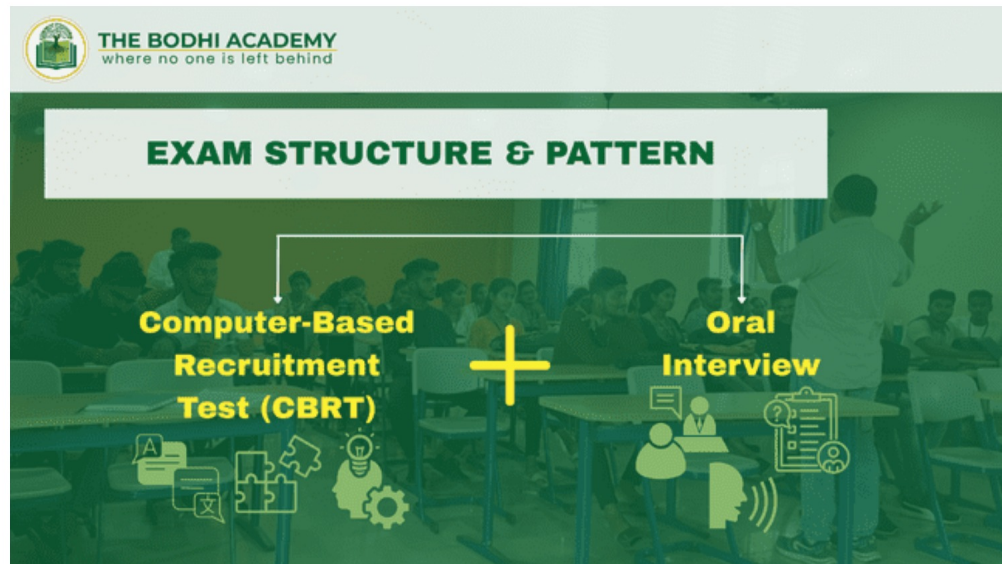

Every successful exam journey begins long before entering the examination hall; it starts with clarity, awareness, and proper direction. Understanding what lies ahead helps shape your preparation and guides where to focus your time and effort. The GPSC Mamlatdar Exam Pattern 2025 serves as a strategic roadmap, offering a clear view of the exam’s structure and stages. It outlines the marking system and evaluation process, helping you plan effectively and approach your preparation with purpose and intent.

In this blog, we’ll take you through the GPSC Mamlatdar Exam Pattern 2025 in a clear, step-by-step manner, breaking down each phase of the selection process. With this understanding, you’ll be able to prepare smarter, stay organised, and approach your goal with confidence, precision, and determination.

GPSC Mamlatdar Exam Pattern 2025 – Overview

The GPSC Mamlatdar Exam Pattern 2025 acts as a detailed framework for aspirants aiming to achieve one of the most prestigious administrative roles under the Goa Public Service Commission. Gaining a clear grasp of the pattern is vital for developing a focused preparation plan and organising your study schedule effectively.

This examination is conducted in multiple phases, each crafted to evaluate a candidate’s logical reasoning, understanding of governance, problem-solving capability, and overall awareness. To help you get a quick snapshot before exploring the details, here’s a concise outline of the exam structure below.

[Source: thebodhiacademy]

Now that you’ve got a brief overview, let’s take a closer look at each stage of the GPSC Mamlatdar Exam Pattern 2025 and understand its structure in detail.

GPSC Mamlatdar Exam Pattern 2025 – CBRT

The Computer-Based Recruitment Test (CBRT) marks the first and most significant phase of the GPSC Mamlatdar Exam Pattern. Conducted in an objective-type, multiple-choice format, this stage serves as the foundation for shortlisting candidates for the final interview round.

It is structured to assess not only a candidate's theoretical understanding but also their analytical and problem-solving abilities. The exam further evaluates general awareness and knowledge of key administrative and legal frameworks essential to the Mamlatdar's role. The questions are framed to assess how well candidates can apply their understanding of governance, current affairs, and decision-making to real-world administrative scenarios.

- Total Marks: 75
- Duration: 90 Minutes

Subject-Wise Distribution of Marks

Section	Marks
General English including Grammar	10
Logical Reasoning and Analytical Ability	25
General Knowledge & Current Affairs	10
Core Section (Subject-specific)	30

This stage serves as a comprehensive screening process, selecting candidates with strong intellectual clarity and practical aptitude. It identifies the most capable individuals and prepares them for the next phase - the Interview stage. Securing the qualifying marks in this stage is essential to advance further, so having a clear grasp of its GPSC Mamlatdar Exam Pattern and syllabus is crucial for strategic and targeted preparation.

GPSC Mamlatdar Exam Pattern 2025 – Interview

The Interview is the second and final stage of the GPSC Mamlatdar selection process. Candidates who successfully qualify in the Computer-Based Recruitment Test (CBRT) are shortlisted for this round.

This stage evaluates a candidate's personality, communication, confidence, and analytical skills, determining suitability for the Mamlatdar's administrative role. Unlike the written test, it judges how effectively candidates apply their knowledge to real governance challenges.

The final merit list is prepared based on the combined performance in the CBRT and the Interview. Candidates are then appointed according to their ranking on the merit list and the availability of vacancies under the Goa Public Service Commission.

GPSC Mamlatdar Exam Pattern – 75 Marks Computer-Based Test (CBRT)

All shortlisted candidates must refer to the official website to get updates regarding their call letters and hall tickets for the interview. It is strongly advised to regularly visit the official GPSC website for timely updates on exam schedules, interview dates, and important announcements.

GPSC Mamlatdar 2025 Syllabus

Once you're familiar with the GPSC Mamlatdar exam pattern, the next move is to focus on the Goa Public Service Commission (GPSC) Mamlatdar Syllabus 2025 - its detailed breakdown of topics will guide your study efforts.

The key areas include:

- General English including Grammar
- Logical Reasoning and Analytical Ability
- General Knowledge, Current Affairs and Events of National and International Importance
- Core Section (Subject-specific)
 1. Goa Daman and Diu Agricultural Tenancy Act
 2. Goa Daman and Diu Mundkars (Protection from Eviction) Act
 3. Goa Land Revenue Code
 4. Mamlatdar Court Act
 5. Comunidade System
 6. Cinematograph Act
 7. Cigarette and Tobacco Act
 8. Constitution of India – Fundamental Rights
 9. Constitution of India – Directive Principles and Fundamental Duties
 10. Structure of Union and State Government
 11. Panchayati Raj System in Goa
 12. Local Self-Government and Urban Governance
 13. Right to Information Act
 14. Public Grievance Redressal and Citizen Services
 15. Administrative Ethics and Conduct Rules

Together, these sections assess your problem-solving skills, awareness of current affairs, and language proficiency, all vital for a Mamlatdar's role. For a detailed breakdown of topics, check our dedicated post on the GPSC Mamlatdar Syllabus 2025.

GPSC Mamlatdar 2025 Marking Scheme

Understanding how marks are allotted and calculated helps you make smarter attempts. Here's a quick look at the marking scheme:

GPSC Mamlatdar Exam Pattern – 75 Marks Computer-Based Test (CBRT)

For the CBRT stage, candidates earn +1 mark for each correct answer, and there is no negative marking; you'll aim for a total of 75 marks. For the Interview round, candidates should check the official notification for accurate information about the scoring criteria.

Now that we've clearly understood the GPSC Mamlatdar Exam Pattern and its marking scheme, let's take a closer look at the important dates.

GPSC Mamlatdar 2025 Important Dates

Here are the key dates and events related to the GPSC Mamlatdar Exam 2025 to help you stay on track. Each phase plays a vital role in the overall marking process, determining your progress toward the final selection.

Events	Dates
Notification Release date	14th February 2025
Online application start Date	14th February 2025
Last date to Apply	28th February 2025
Exam date	Yet to be Announced

Regularly visit the official GPSC website for important updates, including exam dates, schedules, and the release of admit cards.

Grasping the GPSC Mamlatdar Exam Pattern 2025 lays the foundation for a well-planned and effective preparation journey. When you clearly understand the exam's structure and marking system, it becomes easier to organise your study routine, manage time wisely, and practice with direction.

Consistency and smart revision are your strongest tools; keep your focus steady and your determination strong. Every effort you invest today moves you one step closer to achieving your goal of success in the exam. For expert guidance and detailed resources on GPSC exams, keep following The Bodhi Academy. Stay focused, stay confident - clarity always leads to success!

